COACH A. L. "RED" SWANSON
Head Football Coach

WE STARTED OFF

Starting the 1950 football season with a new athletic director and head coach the team had to be built from the bottom. With such losses as Dave Fisher, Dick Pate, and Jerry Hodges in the backfield and Paul DiGiovanni and A. D. Smith in the line, there was a big building job to be done in a short time around such lettermen as Crowson, Boudreaux, Gaudet and Wink. Coach Swanson depended upon junior college transfers and up and coming freshmen. By the beginning of the season he, with his able assistants, had rounded out a team far above par according to all previous predictions.

1950 FOOTBALL SQUAD.

ON THE RIGHT FOOT

Too many homecomings. That is the best way to describe the 1950 football season, as SLI won its five home games and lost four games on the road—all of them homecomings for the opponents. The sweetest victory of all was the homecoming game against Louisiana Tech, in which SLI won its first game over the Techmen since 1946. The pressure on SLI in every road game, coupled with mid-season injuries to the defensive line, found the Bulldogs hanging on in the end.

CROWSON DRIVES THROUGH.

E. TEX. BAPTIST—0 SOUTHWESTERN—25

Coach "Red" Swanson pulled the wraps off an explosive SLI Bulldog squad as they romped to a 25-0 victory over East Texas Baptist College in the opener.

Playing straight, methodical ball, the Bulldogs ground out their victory in easy fashion.

The Bulldogs began the scoring in the first quarter when Jack Herron intercepted a pass on his own 21-yard line and ran all the way for a TD.

The second SLI tally came as a result of superb punting by Kenneth Sweeney and fine punt-returning by Mike Simmons. Lewis threw a 20-yard pass to Crowson for the tally.

A blocked punt by Lovic Touchet and Hutch Henry set up the third touchdown in the third stanza. Crowson ripped off right tackle from two yards out for the touchdown.

SLI picked up its last touchdown in the final frame on a 53-yard run by F. G. Mixon and a fake pass and run by Lewis.

SOUTHWESTERN—6

A battle of two great defensive lines featured SLI's first GSC win, a 6-0 victory over Southeastern Louisiana College.

The only score of the night came on a 30-yard aerial from Lewis to Gaudet. Gaudet made a brilliant catch on the three-yard line and stepped over for the score.

SOUTHEASTERN—0

Due mainly to the work of two defensive backs, Jack Herron and Bill Lowry, that the Lions were held to only 87 yards on the ground.

Other outstanding players in the defensive battle were SLI linemen John Falgout, Hutch Henry, Ray Boudreaux and C. L. Wink.

SOUTHWESTERN—40

It was "E. J. Lewis Night" at the annual gridiron meeting between SLI and Troy, Alabama, State Teachers college in McNaspy stadium.

The slim senior quarterback tossed four touchdown passes and engineered SLI to a 40-14 win over the visitors.

SLI's recovery of a fumble on the Troy 16 set up the first touchdown, which was scored on a pass from Lewis to Gaudet.

Troy sandwiched two touchdowns and two extra points between a 27-yard scoring pass from Lewis to Crowson to take a 14-13 lead and put the Bulldogs behind in a ball game for the first time during the season.

TROY STATE—14

A Lewis-to-Falgout pass set the stage for Mixon's scoring line plunge two minutes before the half ended to give SLI a 20-14 lead.

Junior halfback Jack Baker sparked a 64-yard SLI scoring drive, and Lewis flipped to Falgout and Gaudet for two more tallies in the Bulldog romp.

SOUTHWESTERN—0 MISS. SOUTH—6

Homecoming headaches for Swanson and the Bulldogs began at Hattiesburg, where the Bulldogs dropped a hard-fought decision to a homecoming-inspired Southern squad, 6-0.

The Southerners scored the only touchdown of the game in the second quarter on brilliant quarterback sneaks by Dave Walker.

Southwestern's big defensive line stalled the highly-touted Southern attack throughout the fray, and twice stopped Southern threats inside the SLI 10 in the fourth quarter.

Sweeney played an outstanding offensive and defensive game for the Bulldogs, and his punting kept the Southerners at bay during most of the night.

The score of the game did not reflect upon the strength of the respective teams, as it was undoubtedly one of the best-played and most thrill-packed games in the 1950 GSC race.

SOUTHWESTERN—0 MEMPHIS ST.—20

"Old Man Mud" and the weariness of a journey of over 400 miles cost the Bulldogs their second defeat of the season.

Memphis State's powerful single wing attack, aided by the mud, ground out a 20-0 victory over the Bulldogs. The "sea of mud" that served as a playing field and continuous rain throughout the contest ruined the effectiveness of SLI's "T" formation.

SLI's great defensive line gave a creditable performance in holding down the Memphis State aggregation, a 30-point favorite, to three touchdowns.

The only SLI scoring threat came in the third quarter when substitute fullback Gerry Foret ran 68-yards on a touchdown play that was nullified by an offside penalty.

Two consistent performers, Mike Simmons and Joe Kite, turned in top performances in the SLI defensive backfield.

SOUTHWESTERN—41 LOUISIANA TECH—13

Probably the sweetest revenge any SLI athletic team ever gained was obtained by the 1950 football team in their first win over arch-rival Louisiana Tech since 1946.

While 11,500 hysterical homecoming fans cheered wildly, the Bulldog eleven pulled the conference's upset of the year by crushing the heavily-favored Techmen, 41-13.

The running of George Crowson, ace SLI halfback, and the stellar linebacking of Andy Billich, freshman center, featured the SLI win.

Billich started the Bulldogs off to their first touchdown by recovering a Tech fumble deep in the visitors' territory. Crowson plunged over from four yards out for the first tally.

The Crowson touchdown started SLI off on a scoring parade that saw Baker, Mixon, Gaudet and Foret cross the Tech goal line. Mixon scored twice, and Gaudet caught a pass from Lewis for his touchdown.

Tech, led by Joe Rabb and Jimmy Harrison, scored one touchdown in the second quarter and one touchdown in the final frame.

Probably the most thrilling game of the season was the Stephen F. Austin tilt, in which SLI came from behind in the final second to rack up the win.

E. J. Lewis climaxed a brilliant comeback by SLI when he plunged over for a touchdown with one second to go to give the Bulldogs a 20-13 win.

SLI trailed 13-0 at halftime, but waged a hard-fought uphill battle to down the powerful Texas 11.

Crowson set up the first two touchdowns on runs of more than 40 yards, and Lewis scored both tallies on quarterback sneaks.

With seconds remaining in the game, Lewis tossed a pass to Falgout, who bulled his way down to the two yard line. Lewis stepped across the goal line behind Boudreaux and Leibert as the final gun went off.

LA. COLLEGE—22

It was somebody else's homecoming again, and SLI fell before Louisiana College, 22-20, in an overwhelming upset.

La. College built up a 19-0 lead on the first half and successfully beat back a determined comeback by the tough SLI squad.

Crowson, Lewis and Mixon sparked the SLI attack that almost put SLI out in the front with second half tallies.

Jerry McKown, sensational La. College quarterback, sparked the winners as a runner, passer and kicker.

Eight hundred Southwestern students attended the game for the annual excursion.

Southwestern did everything with the ball but hang on to it as the Bulldogs fumbled away a 12-7 game to the Northwestern Demons.

SLI came to life in the last frame after three quarters of hectic, fumbling play. The Bulldog machine rolled 75 yards to a touchdown on five plays to take a 7-6 lead. The touchdown was scored by Sweeney on an 11-yard run.

In the final seconds of play the Demons recovered a fumble on the SLI 20 and turned it into the winning touchdown.

The Demon game was the final SLI football appearance for Lou Gaudet, Ray Boudreaux, Howard Wilcox, Hutch Henry, Howard Fournet, C. L. Wink, H. C. Billon, E. J. Lewis, George Crowson.

1950-1951

Coach Reinhardt, going into his twentieth season as head Basketball Coach and Athletic Trainer, ended the season with a record of 8 wins and 10 losses. The Basketball Team had exceptionally rough going on the road but made up for it on home appearances. Coach Reinhardt had to depend upon six seasoned veterans during the entire season. Though S. L. I. came out on the short end of the won-lost column, the Bulldogs were a threat to any opponent during the entire season.

The Bulldog cagers began the season by dropping a pair of close ones on the road. They bowed to Southeastern, 61-69, in the GSC opener and fell before Rice Institute, 59-63, in an intersectional game in Houston, Tex.

SLI got back into familiar Blackham coliseum and smothered Loyola, 72-58, and dropped a close 58-59 decision to Spring Hill. Centenary took the measure of the Bulldogs, 51-76, but SLI jumped back into the GSC race with handy wins over Northwestern (74-56), Louisiana College (82-50) and Mississippi Southern (65-52).

Loyola and Spring Hill beat the Bulldogs on the road (69-55 and 68-44), but SLI kept its first division spot in the GSC with a home court win over Mississippi Southern, 74-69, and Louisiana College, 73-68.

Things were a little rougher against Northwestern (52-71), Southeastern (58-59) and Louisiana Tech (61-63).

SLI won high scoring battles from Tech, 74-55, and Centenary, 93-72, in Blackham coliseum, but closed out the season by bowing to the Centenary team in the Louisiana district NAIB playoff tournament, 53-63, in Hammond.

"THE COLORS"

The third year of operation of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps at Southwestern saw an all time high enrollment in the Air Science courses of four hundred and fourteen cadets the first semester and four hundred and sixty-three for the second semester. This easily established the Southwestern unit as the second largest Air Force ROTC in the State of Louisiana. Seventy-six cadets have received their commissions since the unit began operations. Many are already serving at bases in the United States and two are overseas. With these men and the many more that will enter the Air Force as soon as they receive their commissions SLI is doing a large part in the training of men for the defense of this country.

AIR FORCE INSTRUCTORS

Major Harley N. Cox, Capt. Stanworth Verdier, Lt. Col. James A. Cowan, M/Sgt. Vernon G. Waquespack, WOJG Earl P. Flanagan, Capt. Jack Robinson Jr., T/Sgt. Robert W. Porter, and T/Sgt. Lester J. Richard.

R. O. T. C. AT S. L. I.

The purpose of the Air Force ROTC is to train students who possess the character, intelligence, desire, and sense of duty to become Air Force Officers and responsible citizens. The Basic ROTC includes courses in navigation, meteorology, air operations, map reading, first aid, history of the Air Force, etc. The Advanced ROTC gives the cadet a chance to "major" in one of the two special courses of instruction: Administration and Logistics or Armament. Upon entry into active duty with the Air Force the officer will usually work in the field in which he studied at SLI, however, he does have every opportunity, if physically qualified, to go to pilot or navigator school as a Second Lieutenant.

A black and white photograph of a group of thirteen students, likely a yearbook committee or a similar group, posing behind a long wooden table. The students are arranged in two rows: seven standing in the back and six seated at the table. They are dressed in formal attire typical of the mid-20th century. The table is covered with papers and books, suggesting a formal or academic setting.

Every student who registers at Southwestern automatically becomes a member of this association. It is the governing Student organization and has been organized to consolidate students and to cooperate with the college authorities. The Association functions through the medium of the Students Executive Council.

The Vermilion is a tabloid newspaper published weekly by the students at Southwestern. It is a member of the Associated College Press and received a Second Class Honor Rating in the 1950 All-American Newspaper Critical Service. The Vermilion is authorized to operate under the constitution of the Associated Students of Southwestern, and functions under a student and faculty board of publications. It is in its forty-seventh year of publication. Material for the newspaper is gathered by the students on the campus; the printing is done at a local printing plant. A semester assessment to the students and the sale of advertising provide funds for the operation of the publication.

STAFF IN 1951 . . .

FROM THE EDITOR . . .

I would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the invaluable assistance that I have received in the editing and publication of the 1951 L'Acadien.

To the students: I hope I have proven myself worthy of the confidence you have placed in me. Your co-operation has been wonderful.

To the staff: Thanks for your untiring efforts.

To Mr. Harry DeLaRue: Without your experience and advice this yearbook could not be presented at this time. Many thanks from a student and friend.
